MEMORANDUM FOR:

STAT

The Director first met John Day in 1956 when the Director was host at the Alibi Club to the CBS overseas group. John Day was seated at the other end of the table, closer to General Cabell. He is about 5'10", weighs about 180 lbs., has a round face and reddish hair. He worked on southern newspapers before going to CBS. He is highly regarded. The Director also met him, of course, in New York a year ago when the group went up there. Day took a more active part in that meeting. I recall that he felt that at the earlier Washington meeting David Schoenbrun had taken so much time expressing his views that the conference would have been better had David been less loquacious.

I would recommend that the Director write the letter as requested, endorsing his candidacy.
